About the Role

The Catholic Education Diocese of Bathurst is seeking a dedicated Religious Education Curriculum Coordinator (2 Point) to lead the effective organisation, delivery, and continuous improvement of the Religious Education curriculum at James Sheahan Catholic High School, Orange. This is a key leadership position that supports our school's mission to foster faith, learning, and academic excellence. The successful applicant will play a pivotal role in shaping students' spiritual and educational journeys, while supporting the professional growth of faculty members.

Key responsibilities:

- Lead the development and implementation of high-quality Religious Education programs in line with NESA and CEDB guidelines.
- Promote and model the Catholic ethos, mission, and values across the school.
- Foster a collaborative, results-driven professional learning culture within the RE faculty.
- Use data and evidence to inform teaching practice and improve student outcomes.
- Ensure compliance with NESA, CEDB, and internal reporting and assessment requirements.
- Coordinate and manage faculty meetings, resources, budget, and performance development.
- Engage students and the broader school community through RE-related events, liturgies, and communications.

About You

- Hold appropriate tertiary qualifications to teach Religious Education courses with Category D accreditation, with proven experience in teaching Stage 6 courses.
- Commitment to Catholic education and a clear understanding of the ethos of Catholic Schools, and the charisms of St. John Baptiste De La Salle and the Venerable Catherine McAuley.
- Demonstrated ability to lead a KLA team and to successfully liaise with students, staff, parents and relevant organisations regarding Religious Education curriculum matters.
- Demonstrated ability to promote a culture of effort, engagement and excellence through the development of a positive, supportive student environment and related structures.
- Have the capacity and desire to work with the Leader of Mission and Formation in promoting faith development in the school and to support the work of the Parish.
- Willingness to undertake administrative, curriculum and supervisory duties associated with the position.

About Us

The Catholic Education Diocese of Bathurst (CEDB) is responsible for 33 schools, approximately 9,300 students and 1,700 staff. CEDB is seeking dynamic staff to join our school communities who are committed to making a difference in the lives of their students and their world. Situated in the beauty of the central west region of NSW, a diversity of opportunity awaits you and your family, whether you choose to apply to a school in one of our regional centres or to a school located in small rural community.

Established in 1976, James Sheahan Catholic High School is named for James Sheahan, an influential Catholic priest who played a significant role in the development of Catholic education in the region.

At James Sheahan Catholic High School, we believe in holistic education. Alongside academics, we encourage students to participate in extracurricular activities such as sports, performing arts, public speaking, and community service. Our aim is to create a nurturing environment where students feel valued, respected, and safe. We actively engage with the local community and promote social responsibility through community service programs.
